

Leading Southwest Florida Homebuilder Tundra Homes Wins Seven 2017 CCCIA Builders' Showcase Awards

PRESS RELEASE - February 21, 2017

Tundra Homes' new La Palma II model was awarded Best Overall, Best Livability, Best Pool, Best Outdoor Living, Best Kitchen, Best Bathroom, and Best Interior Design, respectively.

Tundra Homes, a leading Southwest Florida homebuilder with more than 25 years of experience bringing homeowners' dreams to life across Southwest Florida including Cape Coral, Pine Island, Fort Myers, Bonita Springs and Punta Gorda, proudly announced today that it has won seven 2017 Cape Coral Construction Industry Association (CCCIA) Builders' Showcase Awards.

For over 20 years, the CCCIA Builders' Showcase Awards has recognized the industry's best in homebuilding quality, design and innovation. At this year's ceremonial dinner that took place on January 12 at the Cape Cabaret in Cape Coral, Florida, Tundra Homes' new La Palma II model was awarded: Best Overall, Best Livability, Best Pool, Best Outdoor Living, Best Kitchen, Best Bathroom, and Best Interior Design, respectively.

"It is an honor to be recognized by the CCCIA in multiple high-profile design categories," commented Tundra Homes' president David Gydosh, who was recently featured by News-Press.com (part of the USA Today Network) in an article that traces the Cape Coral homebuilder's roots, and explores the company's award-winning La Palma II design. "Our team has a tremendous amount of passion for creating strong relationships and crafting stunning homes, which enable homeowners to experience their own piece of paradise in sunny and spectacular Southwest Florida. We are very proud of these seven awards, grateful to the CCCIA and our industry peers, and excited about what the future holds for our company and clients!"
